About The Book

Inspired by a real city trail called Park to Playa in Los Angeles, From Park to Playa includes back matter not only about the real path, but about finding your path where you live. Nature is just outside the door and free and accessible to all, even if you live in the middle of a city.

My Background

I grew up in Los Angeles with a biologist father and librarian mother.

Middlebury College graduate and attended the Radcliffe Publishing Program.

I was a TV producer at The Discovery Channel, VH1, & MSNBC. Produced online content for Nickelodeon.
